

I See Shapes

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's read the title - I See Shapes. Let's look at the picture. What do you see? A1: I see a boy with a hat. I see balloons and presents. I see a cake. Q2: What do you think the book will be about? A2: I think the book will be about shapes. I think it will be about a birthday party.	Q1: What shapes do you see? A1: I see triangles and circles. I see squares and rectangles. Q2: What party things do you see with all these shapes? A2: I see party hats that are triangles. I see balloons that are circles. I see lots of squares that are presents. I see a cake that is a rectangle.	Q1: How old is the birthday boy? A1: The birthday boy is six. There are six candles on his cake. Q2: How old will you be on your next birthday? A2: Answers will vary.

I See Shapes
© 1995 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Written by Marcia Fries
Illustrated by students in the multi-age primary class
at Lee School in Los Alamitos, California

Revised Edition © 2017 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Illustrated by Amy Cartwright
Art Director: Moonhee Pak
Project Director: Stacey Faulkner

Published in the United States of America by:
Creative Teaching Press Inc.
6262 Katella Ave.
Cypress, CA 90630

I see triangles.

Now I see hats.

I see circles.