

We Can Share at School

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's read the title, "We Can Share at School." How do you share at school? A1: Possible answers: I share my books. I share the ball at recess. I share my pencils. Q2: Let's look at the cover and title page. What are some of the things the children are sharing. A2: The children are sharing scissors, paintbrushes, glue, paint, crayons, and paper.	Q1: What do you think the children are doing? A1: I think the children are making an art project together. Q2: Why is it important for the children to share? A2: It is important that they share because it allows each child to have a turn. It allows each child to do one part of the art project until it is finished.	Q1: What did the children make? A1: The children made a big picture of the sun, flowers, grass, and a butterfly. Q2: Can you think of a time when you shared something with someone else? A2: Answers will vary.

We Can Share at School

We can share paper.

We can share pencils.