

Oranges for Orange Juice

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: How do you think oranges get from the trees to the supermarkets? A1: Possible answer: Someone picks the oranges from the trees. Then they take the oranges to the supermarket. Q2: Do orange trees grow where you live? A2: Possible answers: Yes, orange trees grow where I live. I have an orange tree in my yard. No, orange trees do not grow where I live. It's too cold.	Q1: What job do workers have to do to get oranges to you? A1: Workers pick oranges. Workers load and haul oranges. Workers inspect the oranges. Workers pack the oranges. Workers drive trucks carrying the oranges to the market. Workers sell the oranges. Q2: Where are oranges packed? Where are oranges sold? A2: Oranges are packed at a factory. Oranges are sold at markets.	Q1: What is the boy doing on page 8? A1: The boy is squeezing fresh oranges. He is making orange juice. Q2: Can you think of other snacks you can make from fresh fruit? A2: Possible answers: I can make applesauce from fresh apples. I can make frozen bananas. I can make fruit salad. I can make a fruit smoothie.

Oranges for Orange Juice

S

Oranges are picked.

Oranges are loaded and hauled.