

Best Friends

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: This is a story about two best friends. How would you describe a “best friend?” A1: Answers will vary: Best friends laugh at the same jokes. They like to do similar activities. Best friends help each other. Q2: What do you like to do with your best friend? A2: Answers will vary: We read books together. We sit together on the bus. My bestie and I like to go swimming.	Q1: What do the two best friends both like to do? A1: The two best friends like to have a picnic. They both like to read books and go skating. They both like to write stories. They like to make cookies. Q2: What different things do the best friends like to do? A2: They like different flavors of popsicles. At the park, one likes to swing, and one likes to slide. One friend likes to work with clay, and the other friend likes to paint.	Q1: What is another activity the two friends like? A1: They like to have sleepovers together. They like to eat cookies and drink hot cocoa. Q2: What are some different things and activities you and your best friend prefer? A2: Answers will vary: We both like pizza. But I like cheese pizza and my best friend likes pepperoni pizza. I like to play soccer, but my best friend likes baseball.

Best Friends

I have a best friend. Her name is Ann.
Ann is blind.

Sometimes we like the same things.
Sometimes we like different things.