

Watch Out for Worms!

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover and read the title. How many worms do you see in the picture? A1: I see nine worms. They make the word "worms!" with their bodies. Q2: Let's look at the title page. What are the bugs doing? A2: The bugs are waiting for the worms to come out of the holes in the ground.	Q1: What makes the worms come out? A1: The rain makes the worms come out. Q2: Why do we have to watch out for worms? A2: We have to watch out so we don't step on the worms. We don't want to ride over the worms with our bicycles.	Q1: Why do worms wiggle? A1: Worms wiggle because they don't have feet. Q2: Why did the worms go back in the ground? A2: Possible answers: The sun dried up the rain. The worms were done playing with the bugs.

Watch Out for Worms!

The rain comes down.
The worms come out.

Watch out for worms.
Watch out for worms!

Wiggle, wiggle, wiggle, wiggle.
Worms all about.
Watch out for worms.
Watch out for worms!
