

Heroes of Our School: Miss Romero

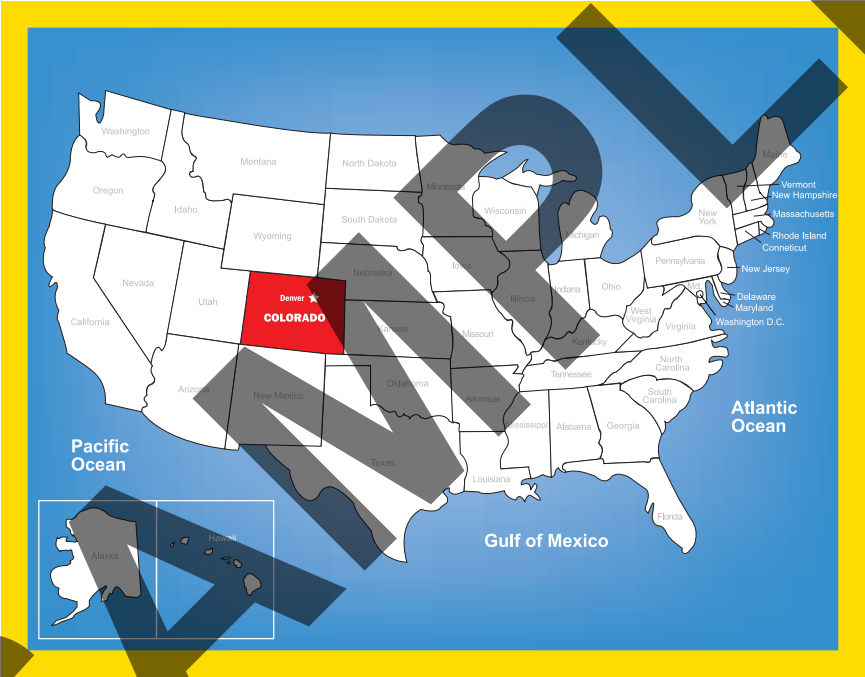

Text and photos by Carolina Cisneros

Every school has teachers, principals, and aides who work every day to help students and their parents.

We call them heroes of the school because they make life better for others.

Miss Romero is one of these heroes.

Miss Romero was born on July 25, 1975, in Denver, Colorado.

As a child, she lived in Colorado with her parents and brothers.

She is Mexican-American.
