

What's Going On?

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover. Who is the story about? A1: The story is about a girl and her cat. Q2: What do the girl and her cat see in the closet? A2: The girl and her cat see three presents.	Q1: What does the girl see and smell? A1: The girl smells a cake. She sees presents. Q2: What does the girl taste and feel? What does she hear? A2: The girl tastes ice cream. She feels a hug. She hears, "Surprise!"	Q1: Do you think the girl had a fun birthday? A1: Yes, the girl had a fun birthday. Her grandma and her four friends came to her party. Q2: What party things did she have? A2: Possible answers: She had a yummy cake and ice cream. She had balloons and party hats. She had presents too.

What's Going On?
© 1994 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Written by Rozanne Lanczak Williams
Illustrated by Gwen Connelly

Revised Edition © 2017 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Illustrated by Jennifer E. Morris
Art Director: Moonhee Pak
Project Director: Stacey Faulkner

Published in the United States of America by:
Creative Teaching Press Inc.
6262 Katella Ave.
Cypress, CA 90630

What's Going On?

I smell a cake.

I taste ice cream.