

I Can Write

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover. What is the girl doing? A1: She is writing with a pencil. Q2: What other writing supplies (things) do you see? A2: Possible answers: I see a writing box. Inside it are crayons, markers, a notebook, paintbrushes, and writing paper.	Q1: Where can the girl write? A1: Possible answers: The girl can write on the sidewalk, on the paper, on the whiteboard, and on the birthday card. She can write on the postcard and on the computer. She can write everywhere! Q2: Let's look at page 8. Do you think the girl is a good writer? A2: Possible answers: Yes! She loves to write. She writes all the time. She writes a lot of stories and draws the pictures too.	Q1: Where do you like to write? A1: Possible answers: I like to write at school. I like to write in my bedroom. I like to write using the computer. Q2: What can you write? A2: Possible answers: I can write stories. I can write letters. I can write poems. I can write notes.

I Can Write

I can write on the sidewalk.

I can write on the paper.