

Five Little Monsters Went to School

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover. How do you know that the five little monsters went (or are going) to school? A1: The little monsters are wearing backpacks. One little monster is carrying a lunch box. One is carrying books. Q2: Can you count the monsters? A2: Yes, I can! One, two, three, four, five!	Q1: What did the little monsters do at school? A1: One little monster raised her hand. Two little monsters shared their crayons. Three little monsters waited their turns. Four little monsters listened to the story. Q2: What did all five of the little monsters do at school? A2: Five little monsters followed the rules!	Q1: Why do we need rules at school? A1: Possible answers: We need rules at school so everyone respects each other. Rules help us all learn. We need rules to help us get along and be friends. Q2: What picture do you like best in the book? A2: Possible answers: I like the picture on page 5. I like to share and draw. I like the picture on page 7. I like to listen to stories.

Five Little Monsters Went to School

One little monster went to school, raised her hand and followed the rule.