

Just Like Me

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading

Just Like Me

In other lands across the sea,

I have friends who are just like me.
