

Families Share

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: This rhyming book is about families. Describe the family on the cover. A1: There is a mother, a father, a sister, a brother, and a baby sister. The family is having a birthday party for the brother. He is nine years old. He is blowing the candles out on his cake. Q2: What is the family sharing? A2: The family members are sharing a wonderful birthday celebration. They are sharing a happy day!	Q1: How do families share? A1: Families share the chores. They help each other in the kitchen and in the garden. Families share when they play. They play at the beach and play games. Families share meals. One family is sharing pancakes and fruit for breakfast. One family is sharing spaghetti and salad for dinner. Q2: What are other ways families share and help each other? A2: When someone gets hurt, the others in the family help. Families share the fun times, like reading books together and playing at the park.	Q1: How did the two families at the end of the book help each other? A1: They all shared the work. They all helped put a picnic together. Then they all shared the fun at the picnic. Q2: What have you shared with your family? A2: Possible answers: We shared dinner last night. We had chicken and rice. I shared some fun with my family. We went to the movies together. I share the work. I make my bed and feed the dog.

Families Share

Families share the chores.

