

Long Ago and Today

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover and read the title. What's going on in the picture? A1: The girl is looking at clothes, toys, and other things from long ago. Q2: What is the girl thinking about? A2: Possible answers: Maybe she is thinking about the people who used those things. She is thinking about playing dress-up. She is wondering how life was different long ago.	Q1: What did people do long ago? A1: Long ago, farmers plowed the fields. People traveled. They hunted for food. They lived in houses and cooked meals. Children long ago went to school. Q2: What do people do today? A2: People today do the same things but in different ways. For example: Farmers long ago used horses to plow the fields. Today, farmers use tractors. Long ago, people traveled with horse and buggies. Today, people travel in cars and vans.	Q1: Let's look at the last page. What is the girl doing? A1: Possible answer: I think the girl is learning about long ago times by reading books. Q2: Can you think of a way you are the same as a child long ago? A2: Answers will vary: I like to plant a vegetable garden. I help to cook meals. I like to jump rope. I read books.

Long Ago and Today

Long ago, farmers plowed the fields.

Today, farmers plow the fields.
