

Cat and Dog at School

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's get ready for a new adventure with Cat and Dog. Cat and Dog are at school. What "school things" do you see on the book cover? A1: I see a chalkboard. Dog is carrying an apple for the teacher. Dog has a book and a pencil. Cat is wearing a blue backpack. Cat is carrying a brown lunch bag. Q2: What things do you take to school? A2: Possible answers: I take my backpack. I take my lunch box. I take my pencil case to school. I take my books. I take a healthy snack too.	Q1: What did Dog do at school? A1: Dog waited in the line. Dog listened to the story. Dog raised his hand to talk. Dog shared the crayons. On the playground, Dog talked things over. Q2: What did Cat do at school? A2: Cat pushed to the front of the line. Cat played with toys during the story. Cat talked out. Cat took all the crayons. Cat did not talk things over on the playground.	Q1: What idea did Dog have? Did Cat like the idea? A1: Dog said they needed some classroom rules. Cat liked the idea and wanted to write some rules. Q2: What rules did Cat and Dog write? A2: The rules that Cat and Dog wrote are: Let's wait in line. Let's listen carefully. Let's raise our hands. Let's share. Let's talk things over. Let's follow the rules!

Cat and Dog at School

Dog waited in the line.

Cat pushed to the front of the line.