

By Myself or with My Friends

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's read the title and look at the picture on the cover. This book is about things you can do alone or together with your friends. What do you see in the picture? A1: A little boy is playing the drum. His friends are playing musical instruments too. Q2: What is something you do alone in school? What is something you do together with your classmates? A2: Answers will vary: I write stories and draw pictures by myself. We sing songs together. We go to lunch and play at recess together.	Q1: What can the main character, a little boy, do alone? A1: The little boy can build a house, plant a flower, and play ball. He can play a drum and sing a song. He can read a book, ride his bike, paint a picture, and run. He can make an ice cream sundae! Q2: What can the little boy do with his friends? A2: With his friends, the little boy can build a city, plant a garden, and play a game. Together, they can have a band, have a singing concert, and put on a play. They can paint a big mural and have a race. They can have an ice cream party. Yum!	Q1: What do you like to do by yourself? A1: Answers will vary: By myself, I like to visit Grandma. I like to read a book. By myself, I like to jump rope. I like to feed my dog. Q2: What do you like to do with your family? A2: Answers will vary: With my family, I can go to the beach. With my family, I can go shopping. I can go on vacation.

By Myself or with My Friends

I can build a house by myself.
With my friends, I can build a city.

I can plant a flower by myself.
With my friends, I can plant a garden.
