

I Try to Be a Good Person

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: This is a story about a girl who tries to be a good person all day long. Can you describe the picture on the cover? A1: I see a happy girl at school. Maybe she is thinking about her day. She is carrying flowers. Q2: No matter where we are, there are opportunities to help others. Looking at the picture on the title page, what ways can the girl show kindness? A2: She can give flowers to the bus driver. She can share her seat on the bus. She can be friendly.	Q1: What did the girl do that shows she was being a good person? A1: The girl found a dollar and gave it to her teacher. She helped a friend who fell on the playground. She was a good sport. She helped a classmate pick up the crayons he dropped. She became friends with a new boy. She waited to talk to her teacher. Q2: What words describe the girl and what she did? A2: She was honest, caring, a good sport, helpful, friendly, and polite.	Q1: Can you think of ways to be a good person at school? A1: Answers will vary: Share my markers. Help a classmate with a project. Pick up trash on the floor. Say "Please" and "Thank you." Q2: Can you think of ways to be a good person at home? A2: Answers will vary: Do chores without being asked. Make greeting cards for family members. Help younger sibling with school work.

I Try to Be a Good Person

I try to be a good person.

If I find a dollar on the floor,
what should I do?