

Helping Mom and Dad

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover and read the title. How are the children helping? A1: The children are helping their parents wash the family car. Q2: Why do you think it's important for everyone in the family to help? A2: Answers will vary: If everyone helps get the work done, there's more time for fun!	Q1: How did the brother help? A1: The brother helped Mom with the dishes. Q2: How did the sister help? How did everyone help? A2: The sister handed Dad tools to fix the car. She helped Dad with lunch. Everyone helped with the laundry and with the gardening.	Q1: What do the brother and sister do all by themselves? A1: They each clean their own room all by themselves. Q2: How do you help at home? A2: Answers will vary: I feed our dog. I help Mom make lunches. I make my bed every morning. I like to pick up toys.

Helping Mom and Dad

Mom and Dad work all week,
so we want to help them around the house.

We like to help.
Mom and Dad like when we help too.
