

Here Come the Trucks

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's talk about the cover. What do you see? A1: I see three big trucks. One truck is blue, one is red, and one is yellow. Q2: Where do you think the trucks are going? A2: The trucks are going to help people do work!	Q1: What kind of trucks do you see? A1: I see a garbage truck. I see a trailer truck. I see a dump truck. Q2: People use trucks to do work. What kinds of work do you see? A2: Possible answers: I see a truck carrying logs. I see a man fixing a traffic light using a truck. I see a tow truck pulling a car. I see a moving van taking furniture.	Q1: Why do people use dump trucks? A1: People use dump trucks to move dirt and stones. Q2: What kind of trucks do you see every day? A2: Possible answers: I see garbage trucks. I see trailer trucks taking products (goods) to stores and markets. I see pickup trucks. I see trucks that workers use. These workers are plumbers, electricians, gardeners, and firefighters.

Here Come the Trucks

I see a garbage truck.
I see a trailer truck.
I see a dump truck, too.

I see jobs that trucks can do.