

The Fun Trip

SAMPLE

Written and photographed by Donna Cuevas Roeder

Last summer, we visited a few historical places. We visited the Washington National Monument. The monument was constructed to honor George Washington.

In 1789, he became the first president of the United States of America.

SAMPLE

We also visited the White House, where the president of the United States of America lives.