

Heroes of Our School: Principal Palmer

Text and photos by Carolina Cisneros

Every school has teachers, principals, and aides who work every day to help children and parents.

We call them heroes because they are dedicated to making the world better for others.

Principal Palmer is one of these heroes.

Principal Palmer was born on September 26, 1969, in Denver, Colorado.

As a child, he lived in Denver with his parents and two first cousins.

